heartfelt gratitude and esteem on the part of the ladies, the deputation withdrew.

The above report is taken from the Home News of the 14th July, and is a confirmation of what we have already stated concerning the cunning artifices employed by men like Sir John Hennessy cutside of legitimate political life. Governor Henmessy has shown that he is nothing more and flirt, who lives upon "humbug," and has lately endeavoured, in a wild and deaperate manner, to save himself by appealing to the support and countenance of the Apostles of Humbug at Home. As our caustic correspondent who writes under the name of "Sigma" puts it, Sir John Hennessy will now denounce the Colony he has misgoverned purely for purposes of his own. And as residents read the remarks made by him to the delicate ears of the women who formed this remarkable deputation, they will smile grimly over the hypocrisy of the whole affair, while they will also blush for the womanhood of England, and for the manner in which political mountebanks like our ex-Governor take advantage of such people. We do not purpose to answer in detail the hackneyed and transparent misrepresentations made by Sir John Pope | for the purpose of prostitution. Hennessy to his eager female listeners, because their falsity is well known here. But it may be worth noting that the leader of the deputation is a woman whose name (Mrs Josephine E. Butler) figures very prominently upon the advertisement sheets of a certain "penny dreadful" called The Scatinel, in which there appeared some months ago a virulent attack upon the Earl of Kimberley, on the ground that he had "undertaken the defence of licensed resorts of impurity." That same number contained the names of several others of the female agitators referred to in the above cutting; and looking at all the questionable surroundings of this phase of so-called public life, we can only say that we heartily wish Sir John Pope Hennessy and his admirers among the Society for the Suppression of Vice a long and a merry life

Ching Aching, chair coolie, was charged by Mr Britto, proprietor of the French Dispensary, with using abusive and obscene language towards him.

Mr Britto said his boy went to purchase some cakes from an old woman's stall near the Murray Barracks about ten o'clock last night. The boy received the cakes and threw down three cash, but the old woman not observing the money, demanded it from him, when the prisoner interfered and abused him, the complainant, and used some very filthy expressions towards him. The old woman subsequently found the money

The prisoner said the old woman was hi mother, and that boys were frequently in the habit of taking her cakes without paying for them. He had expostulated with the boy, when he was set upon by severa

Inspector Lindsay stated that while h was standing near the Murray Barracks listening to the Band of the Buffs last night about nine o'clock, he observed several Portuguese and also an old woman selling cakes. A dispute arose about the paymen of some cakes. The prisoner was expos tulating with the Portuguese, and behaved as he, the Inspector, thought very well, and only wished to explain matters. After the Inspector had succeeded in pacifying the coolies who were around; the Portuguese, went at them again, and behaved in a very noisy manner. This is the case in which we gave the information which had been laid by the complainant, in which information she stated that the defendant had taken her to Canton on the pretexts of showing her some precious stones, and getting her fortune told, instead of which she was sold as a prostitute for $200 to man in Canton. She also stated that she was redeemed by her adopted sister who resided in Canton. In her evidence she repeated these statements, and maintained them in cross-examination by the Hon. Ng-Choy. She also said that she had objected to go to Canton, as she had no relatives there, but as the defendant said the others would not go unless she did, and as the amah came and said the defendant ordered her to accumpany them, she consented and made no resistance.

In answer to the Court, she said that as the defendant was her husband she had to obey him and go where he ordered her. She had gone to Canton with the defendant's wife, and second and fourth concubines. The precious stones were only a pretext put forward by the defendant to induce her to go. If her husband had told her to go she would have had to go, even if there had been no precious stones to see. The Magistrate said he did not consider that it had been proved that there had been any fraudulent means used, and asked Mr Mossop if he had any further proof. Mr Mossop said he had not, but if his Lordship believed the complainant's statement, that she had gone to Canton on the faith of seeing precious stones and getting her fortune told, there could be little doubt but that there had been fraudulent means

After some little argument, his Worship said he would dismiss the case, telling the complainant that he had no reason to doubt the truth of her story; that she had been hardly used in Canton in being sold as a prostitute, and that she had done quite right in making a complaint to the authorities here. What the Government had to deal with, however, was not what happened in Canton, but it had to deal with the circumstances under which she was induced to leave the Colony. If there had been any specific fraud committed by the defendant in taking her from the Colony then he might have been punished, but he considered that she had gone to Canton more because she was bound, in her position as third concubine, to obey his orders than because there had been any pretext held out. If she had been sold, as a prostitute in Canton, and if it were against the laws of China to do so, she could obtain her remody by appealing to the authorities

THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY. TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of "Notes and Queries on China and Japan," has reached its Tenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally usoful. The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give ritiques embodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China

Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, Hirth, and Hance, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Piton,—all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject. The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included - payable in ad-Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Mana

OFINIONS OF THE PRESS: "All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising R^{μ}

view."--Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)"The China Review * * * * has an excellent table of contents." - Celestial Empire. "The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers."—Celestial Empire. "This number contains several articles of interest and value."—North-China Herald "The present number of this periodical, * * * * opens with a review of the Foreign Trade of China during 1880. This is rather a new departure for a publication which professes to be purely literary; but considering the comparatively small circulation it enjoys at present among the commercial communities of China, we hail the innovation as likely to recommend the Review to the notice of those who take an interest in few matters beyond mercantile pursuits."

North-China Herald. "The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche. on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries

Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which

"On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number."—H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of inform. ation, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors . . . Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.

Visitors' Column.

We have instituted as an experiment Visitons' Column, which we trust will prove successful, and be found useul. To it will be relegated from time to time such items of information, lists, | tables and other intelligence as is considered likely to prove valuable to persons passing through the City, and in connection with we have opened SELECT HOTEL AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY, applications for enrolment
